

This Month in ATMNE
February 2021
Opportunities from New England Affiliates

From RIMTA

- ❖ RIMTA will host its Spring Conference from March 10-13. The conference will be virtual and FREE for all. The conference will feature keynote presentations from Robert Berry, Mike Flynn, and Erica Jordan-Thomas; plus many other sessions to enhance your professional practice, raffle prizes, and a social hour/trivia night. Registration is open at www.rimta.net/events.

From ATOMIC.

- ❖ ATOMIC is offering a book study for “Becoming the Math Teacher You Wish You’d Had”. Anyone can join for free and you can jump in at any time. Contact atomicbookclub@gmail.com for more information.
- ❖ Save the date for ATMNE/ATOMIC conference is Dec 3-4, 2021.

From ATOMIM

- ❖ The Association of Teachers of Mathematics in Maine (ATOMIM) Board Conference Committee Members are getting ready for their Spring Conference! It will be virtual on March 13, with Keynote Speaker Peg Smith. Featured Speakers include Maggie McGatha, Donna Karsten, and Sara Frisbee. All are invited to join for a great day of professional learning with many offerings for all grade spans! Continue to check the ATOMIM website and social media for updates on the program! The cost will be $25 for a day of professional learning. Registration at this link.

From ATMIM

- ❖ Save the date for ATMIM’s February webinar offering, "Same But Different Math: Helping Students Build Connections Between Important Mathematical Ideas", with Sue Looney, on February 23 from 7:00-8:00 PM. Registration will open soon.
- ❖ ATMIM hosts monthly Meet-Ups for math educators. Educator Meet Ups have been a great resource for mathematics educators across Massachusetts and beyond to collaborate during these unprecedented times. You do not need to be a member of ATMIM to attend. If interested in attending please register here. The next meet-up is titled “Fall in Love with Math” and will be held Wednesday, February 10, from 8 - 9 pm.

From ATMNE

- ❖ ATMNE has two Twitter chats scheduled for this month, the first on February 7 (hosted by ATOMIM) and the other on February 21 (hosted by RIMTA). All chats are held on Sunday evenings starting at 7:00 p.m., using the hashtag #ATMNEchat.
