

This Month in ATMNE January 2021 Great PD from Your Couch!

From RIMTA

- ❖ Mark your calendars: The Rhode Island Mathematics Teachers Association (RIMTA) will host its Spring Conference from March 10-13. The conference will be virtual and FREE for all. Details to follow.

From ATOMIM

- ❖ The Association of Teachers of Mathematics in Maine (ATOMIM) Board Conference Committee Members are getting ready for their Spring Conference! It will be virtual on March 13, with Keynote Speaker Peg Smith. Featured Speakers include Maggie McGatha, Donna Karsten, and Sara Frisbee. All are invited to join for a great day of professional learning with many offerings for all grade spans! Continue to check the ATOMIM website and social media for updates on the program! The cost will be $25 for a day of professional learning. Registration at this link.

From ATMIM

- ❖ The Association of Teachers of Mathematics in Massachusetts (ATMIM) will host monthly webinars on topics relevant to math educators. Join Sharon Hessney on January 12 from 7:00-8:00 PM as she presents how to use "What's Going On In This Graph?", a free, weekly online feature of the New York Times Learning Network, where students learn how to interpret graphs that they see themselves in and discover surprises about the world they live in. Register here today!
- ❖ Save the date for ATMIM's February webinar offering, "Same But Different Math: Helping Students Build Connections Between Important Mathematical Ideas", with Sue Looney, on February 23 from 7:00-8:00 PM. Registration will open soon.
- ❖ ATMIM hosts monthly Meet-Ups for math educators. The next topic will be Low-Floor, High-Ceiling Tasks Wednesday, January 20 from 8 - 9 pm. Educator Meet Ups have been a great resource for mathematics educators across Massachusetts and beyond to collaborate during these unprecedented times. You do not need to be a member of ATMIM to attend. If interested in attending please register here. Also, save the date: "Fall in Love with Math", Wednesday, February 10, from 8 - 9 pm.

From ATMNE

- ❖ ATMNE has two Twitter chats scheduled for this month, the first on January 10 (hosted by ATOMIC) and the other on January 24 (hosted by ATMIM). All chats are held on Sunday evenings starting at 7:00 p.m., using the hashtag #ATMNEchat.
