

This Month in ATMNE

December 2020

- ATMNE hosts bi-weekly Twitter chats on Sundays at 7:00 ET. The next chat will be held on December 13, hosted by the Vermont Council of Teachers of Mathematics (VCTM), topic TBA. Use the hashtag #ATMNEchat to join in on the fun!
- The Association of Teachers of mathematics in Connecticut (ATOMIC) is currently in its winter book study of Becoming the Math Teacher You Wish You'd Had in an online forum! More information can be found at, https://atomicmath.org/Winter2020\_Book\_Study.
- Plans are underway for the ATMNE/ATOMIC Conference, December 3rd and 4th 2021. ATOMIC is busy preparing for the conference. Calls for presenters and exhibitors will be soon. All information will be on the ATOMIC website, <https://atomicmath.org/>.
- The Rhode Island Mathematics Teachers Association (RIMTA) is planning for its virtual Spring Conference, scheduled for March 13, 2021. Mark your calendars!
- See the flyer below regarding an upcoming event from the Association of Teachers of Mathematics in Massachusetts (ATMIM).

The flyer is a green rectangular graphic with white text and logos. At the top, it features the ATMIM logo on both sides, which consists of a triangle with the letters 'ATMIM' inside and 'The Association of Teachers of Mathematics in Massachusetts' around it. The main title is 'ATMIM Teacher Meet-Ups' in a large, bold font, followed by the subtitle 'Supporting Mathematics Teaching and Learning from 6 feet apart or more!'. Below this, there is a paragraph of text: 'Join the ATMIM Board and Educators from around the state for our monthly Zoom meet-up and discussion. Each month we feature a new topic with opportunities to share ideas and resources and collaborate with colleagues from across Massachusetts (and beyond)'. The next section says 'Join our next meet-up!' followed by 'Holiday Sweaters and Self-Care' and 'December 9, 2020 at 8:00 - 9:00 PM'. It then states: 'This month we will focus on sharing self-care strategies as we all try to navigate through these unprecedented times. As part of this meet-up we will be awarding a prize for the best holiday sweater!' and includes a blue link 'Click here' to register. A note at the bottom reads: 'NOTE: Any mathematics educator is welcome to attend, you do not need to be a member of ATMIM. Please feel free to invite a friend!'. At the very bottom, there are three social media icons: Facebook with the handle '@atmim', Instagram with '@atmimpublicity', and Twitter with '@atmim_updates'.
